The Big Bang

The inaugural session of Juan Parab was a big bang with which the cultural feat began with a lot of promise. The troupe from Vikash Degree College, Bargarh struck the right note, singing "Sarvesam no Janani, Bharata Dharani..." The two illustrious persons from the Association of Indian Universities, namely Dr. Sampson David and Prof. Ranjan Roy, along with Professor (Dr.) Raseshwari Panigrahi, Hon'ble Member Legislative Assembly, Odisha, Dr. Vishwa Raman Nirmala, noted film maker, were on the dais. Professor Deepak Kumar Behera welcomed them. The two important academics on the dais were the Ex-Vice Chancellor, Prof. D. R. Naik and Professor Atal Choudhury, Vice Chancellor, VSSUT. Professor B. Maharana introduced the guests who addressed the gathering, emphasising the cultural importance of the youth festival and enthused the participating teams. Dr. Sampson David exuded great personal charm and regaled the audience with his spirited welcome to the participants.

Contingents from 32 universities registered, and they all had a photo session with the aforesaid dignitaries. On this occasion, Jyoti Varta, the Juan Parab News Letter, the Souvenir and the University Literary Magazine, Saptarshi were released.

The chief attraction of this gala opening was Shiva Srishti Vyakaranam, Miss Asia Pacific International India, 2016. She was the throb of all hearts and cynosure of all eyes.

Professor Sanjat Kumar Sahu, Registrar of the varsity offered a vote of thanks.

JOIE DE VIVRE

The auditorium premises were thronged by young people in hundreds from various universities milling around with snacks and drinks. The whole campus looked very vibrant and colourful. One could literally feel the joy of life.

A Breathtaking Rally in the Afternoon

The afternoon festivity began with the hoisting of the flags of the Association of Indian Universities and Sambalpur University which was done by Prof. Ranjan Roy and Prof. Deepak Kumar Behera. Soon after, the participating teams walked the streets of the campus in colourful attires, representing through songs and dances the local cultures they belonged to. Some of the teams presented tableaux and performances relating to environmental hazards due to use of plastic, cell phone addiction and other social evils.

The bystanders cheered the participating teams. It was indeed a spectacular road show.

And We Make Song and Dance About Today's Gala Opening

A cultural programme was organised in the evening of 07.01.2019 at the open air stage in the SUIIT campus, right across the main campus, to celebrate the beginning of Juan Parab.

The Cultural Programme on the first day of Juan Parab was marked by the presence of the Hon'ble Governor of Odisha. His Excellency Professor Ganeshi Lal who was gracious enough to pay a short visit to the first day's celebratory evening of Juan Parab. He addressed the students and delegates at the gathering. It was our good fortune that he felicitated two eminent persons from this region, Padmashree Dr. Haldhar Nag and Padmashree Dr. Jitendra Haripal.

The evening of was made special by the spectacular song and dance performances by the students of this university, Kala Parishad (Sambalpur), Vedic International School, and Vikas Group of Institutions. Padmashree Dr. Haripal sang his extremely popular song "Rangabati" and the members of the audience couldn't stop themselves from singing along and dancing. The anchor for the programme was Miss Bhavani Ranbida.
