Sub: Clarification on SEC-C Syllabus for B.A. Pass course .

Ref:- This office letter No. 581/Acd. -I dated 31.01.2018 ,No.5109/ Acd.- I dated 14.07.2017 and letter No. 4354/ Acd.- I dated 20.07.2018.

Sir,

I am directed to intimate you that consequent upon the Correction Slip No.1/2018 issued vide letter No. 4354/ Acd.- I dated 20.07.2018 the students of B.A. Pass course under CBCS have to choose SEC- C any one from the followings: -

1. One of the SEC papers (Prescribed for Pass students) of the Generic Elective Subject opted by the student
2. Intellectual Properties Rights
3. N.C.C.
4. Red Cross

The instruction "03shall be English / MIL" mentioned in the letter No. 581/Acd. -I dated 31.01.2018 be ignored. A copy of said letter is enclosed herewith for reference. (Encl: -1)

The approved syllabus for Intellectual Properties Rights, N.C.C. and Red Cross has already been forwarded to you vide letter No.5109/ Acd.- I dated 14.07.2017 . However, a copy of said letter is enclosed herewith again for reference. (Encl:-2)

SEC syllabus Prescribed for Pass students are available in the detailed syllabus of the subject concerned.

The said rules and syllabus will be effective for the B.A. pass students admitted since the academic session 2016-17. The SEC syllabus Prescribed for B.A. Pass students will change from the academic session from which the revised syllabus for a particular subject has been given effect. For example, syllabus for Economics Pass has been revised from 2018-19 academic session. So the students admitted during 2018-19 academic session and have opted SEC- C as Economics will be examined as per revised syllabus .
