8	Brief Abstract of the Research Work(250 Words)	Financial Management has been considered as one of the most significant disciplines in the contemporary business world these days. It is one of the rapid changing concepts that has been effectively developed and operated since a few decades. In management parlance, it is considered as the primary function for a smooth ongoing of a business organisation both nationwide and globally. Life Insurance Corporation is regarded as the backbone for the security of human life in the society. LIC deals with many things like customer satisfaction, policyholder satisfaction, claim settlement, loan distribution process but managing the financial resources of the corporation becomes the most difficult thing to do. In a country like India, where maximum person is not well aware about financial product and services, neither their utility in their life it becomes necessary to study that up to which extend the most reputed insurance providing company is using the finance and how well it deals with the income, assets, life insurance fund, number of policies, annual premium etc. The basic objective is to study financial management process of LIC of India. The study is based on the secondary data collected from annual report of LIC of India and/or IRDAI from the period 2005-06 to 2020-21. As per the objective of the study Ratio Analysis, Trend Analysis, Time Series Analysis and Regression Analysis has been selected.
