Department Of Home Science At a glance;

The Department of Home Science was established in Sambalpur University in the year 1976. It started functioning in its new building from 1981. In addition to M.A/M.Sc Course in Home Science the department also imparts teaching M.Phil programme from the academic session 1995-96. The specialization offered by the Department at M.A/M.Sc level is Human Development and Family Studies and Food and Nutrition.

Many students awarded Ph.D. from this Department. Over the years research activities have been carried out by the faculty members in different areas of Home Science. A number of research papers and articles have also been published in various Journals and in edited volumes.

It is significant to note that quite a good number of passed out students of this department have been well placed in different teaching and non-teaching positions both in public and private colleges and also in NRHM centres, Hospitals, NGOs and in Women and child welfare Departments, Krishivigyan Kendra's as scientists etc.

Concept Note:

National Nutrition Week is celebrated each year from 1st September to the 7th September to aware the people about important tips of their health and well-being. Through the national nutrition week campaign people from all over the world can be educated to maintain their look and feel better.

People can be aware of their food groups and balanced diet from which they can get good nutritious things. A healthy diet should include the whole grains, fruits, vegetables, fat-free milk or milk products, meats, fish, nuts, seeds etc. The objective of the National Nutrition Week is to enhance the nutritional practice awareness among people of the community through the adoptable training, timely education, seminars, different competitions, road shows and many other campaigns and to make a healthy Nation.

The PG department of Home Science of Sambalpur University is going to organize a National workshop on the occasion of NATIONAL NUTRITION WEEK -2018 on the topic “Optimal Nutrition for Health Promotion-2018” on 5th September 2018.
